SEND EMAILS

Avoid inundating your audience with email sending limits.

Do you ever worry that you are sending too many emails to a recipient? Now you can avoid oversaturation by limiting the number of emails delivered to specific subsets of your audience.

The send limit feature allows you to set a maximum number of emails that can be sent over a given period of time (one week, one month or a variable number of days). You can customize and apply a rule to any list in your MagnetMail account

Request a demo to get a first-hand look at how MagnetMail's send limit feature can prevent oversaturation of your audience.
